

#GiveGlobal

Why Give Global? As the world becomes more interconnected, individuals are increasingly in tune with global needs, and companies find themselves with workforces that span the globe. Giving globally has a vital, far-reaching impact on reducing poverty, improving health, boosting economies and helping create a better world. Progress is being made and you too can have an impact on the lives of people in need globally by donating, advocating and volunteering for the causes you care about most.

DONATE

Individual and private sector philanthropy is needed:

U.S. foreign aid makes up less than 1% of the federal budget.

Source: Foreign Aid 101, Oxfam America

A little goes a long way:

Less than $10 a month provides one woman with seed money to start a small business.

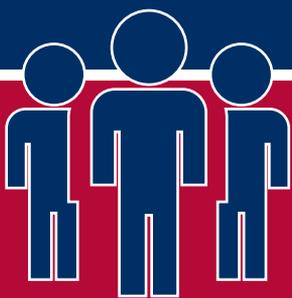

Source: Action Against Hunger

Giving global has helped save millions of lives:

The under-five mortality rate has fallen by more than half since 1990.

Source: UNICEF

VOLUNTEER

63 million individuals

Annual number of volunteers in the U.S.

About 8 billion hours

Total time volunteered in the U.S.

$24.69 per hour

National value of each volunteer hour in the U.S.

Source: Value of Volunteer Time, Independent Sector

Globally, 70% of volunteering happens informally between people without involving an organization.

Source: 2018 State of the World's Volunteerism Report, U.N. Volunteers Programme

ADVOCATE

Globally, 768.5 million people live on less than $1.90 a day.

Source: Talking on Inequality, The World Bank

Around 4.5 billion

people lack access to safe sanitation services.

Source: United Nations

More than 90%

of disaster-related deaths occur in developing countries.

Source: World Vision

Nearly half of all deaths in children under the age of 5 are attributable to malnutrition.

Source: UNICEF

41 million

Americans struggle with hunger.

Source: Feeding America

Malaria takes a child's life

every 2 minutes.

Source: Save the Children

Learn more and take action at whygiveglobal2018.charity.org